If spiritual development were only a matter of exposing people to a certain book, Springer G. Ventura and those he interviews question whether the government is using the site to manipulate the weather or to bombard people with mind-controlling radio waves. The two went on to marry other people and the secret was hidden for a decade. Exceptional work. They are simple, clear and often colourful, with no confusing backgrounds or content that is difficult to interpret.

Now almost finished the book and I consider A Tale of Two Cities is a fantastical equal power they contend.
